

What is FOCUS / Educational Talent Search?

The Talent Search Program (FOCUS) identifies qualified youths with potential for education at the postsecondary level and encourages them to complete secondary school and undertake a program of postsecondary education.

Seminole State College's FOCUS / Educational Talent Search Program, which has been assisting students in this area since 1991, is a free academic enrichment program you can join at your school. It is part of the TRiO Programs, which are funded by the U.S. Department of Education. During the school year your FOCUS / Talent Search Advisor will visit your school and meet with participants either in groups or individually.

What happens in the FOCUS / Educational Talent Search meetings?

Your FOCUS / Talent Search Advisors conduct workshops and activities that provide you with valuable information—but in fun ways. Not only do you learn about college, careers, study skills, and life skills, you improve your interpersonal skills by interacting with others.
