D. Committee Action Agenda for 2017-18

- Training of campus for advising in pathways and coreqs

1. Entering Student Advisors
2. Faculty Advisors
3. Campus Community

Tom Mills agreed to recommend that the faculty and campus staff receive more information on Math Pathways and the corequisites. He also agreed to voice concerns that training occur in the near future. Committee members raised concerns about campus training with Jenzabar.

In this discussion, Tom suggested that we assess the implementation of the math pathways and coreq at scale models focusing on advising. We discussed adding a section of questions to the Graduate Exit Survey on faculty advising and also creating an assessment tool for advising. Linda will look into the questions currently on the Graduate Exit Survey regarding advising. We will consider these items at the next meeting.

- Consider changing question at end of student feedback from Brightspace.

  Suggestions were made to change the question to collect student feedback on attendance. One such question might be "In this class, what drives you to attend class?"

- Update Assessment of Student Learning Procedure This is an ongoing process.
