Building a Brighter Future for Seminole

Steve Saxon

Seminole City Manager

Steve Saxon has served as Seminole's City Manager since 1998. He came to Seminole from the Central Oklahoma Economic Development District after working eight years in planning, grant writing and industrial recruitment. His background includes two years at the Oklahoma Department of Commerce in financial packaging on economic development projects. Steve's commitment to growing Seminole drives every decision he makes. His passion includes keeping SSC the premier Oklahoma two-year

College. His favorite part of managing Seminole is watching how the citizens have pulled together to make Seminole better even through five federally-declared natural disasters. He has served on numerous boards and committees including the Executive Board of the Workforce Innovation Board, Seminole Hospital Board, COEDD Board of Directors, Mainstreet, Chamber of Commerce, Tornado Spotters and the Seminole Community Education Foundation.
